What does the Catechism say about...?

Happy 25th Birthday Catechism of the Catholic Church!

“107. Who is invited to come into the Kingdom of God proclaimed and brought about by Jesus?”

All are invited by Jesus to enter the Kingdom of God. Even the worst of sinners is called to convert and to accept the boundless mercy of the Father. Already here on earth, the Kingdom belongs to those who accept it with a humble heart. To them the mysteries of the Kingdom are revealed.

108. Why did Jesus manifest the Kingdom by means of signs and miracles?

Jesus accompanied his words with signs and miracles to bear witness to the fact that the Kingdom is present in him, the Messiah. Although he healed some people, he did not come to abolish all evils here below but rather to free us especially from the slavery of sin. The driving out of demons proclaimed that his cross would be victorious over 'the ruler of this world.'

109. In the Kingdom, what authority did Jesus bestow upon his Apostles?

Jesus chose the twelve, the future witnesses of his Resurrection, and made them sharers of his mission and of his authority to teach, to absolve from sins, and to build up and govern the Church. In this college, Peter received 'the keys of the kingdom' (Matthew 16:19) and assumed the first place with the mission to keep the faith in its integrity and to strengthen his brothers.”

Summary of paragraphs 541-553 and 567 of the Catechism as found in the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
