What does the Catechism say about...?

“157. Who is the Head of the body?”

Christ ‘is the head of the body, the church’ (Colossians 1:18). The Church lives from him, in him and for him. Christ and the Church make up the ‘whole Christ’ (Saint Augustine); ‘Head and members form, as it were, one and the same mystical person’ (Saint Thomas Aquinas).

158. Why is the Church called the ‘Bride of Christ’?

She is called the ‘Bride of Christ’ because the Lord himself called himself her ‘Spouse’ (Mark 2:19). The Lord has loved the Church and has joined her to himself in an everlasting covenant. He has given himself up for her in order to purify her with his blood and ‘sanctify her’ (Ephesians 5:26), making her the fruitful mother of all the children of God. While the term ‘body’ expresses the unity of the ‘head’ with the members, the term ‘bride’ emphasizes the distinction of the two in their personal relationship.

159. Why is the Church called the temple of the Holy Spirit?

She is so called because the Holy Spirit resides in the body which is the Church, in her Head and in her members. He also builds up the Church in charity by the Word of God, the sacraments, the virtues, and charisms. ‘What the soul is to the human body, the Holy Spirit is to the members of Christ, that is, the body of Christ, which is the Church.’ (Saint Augustine).”

Summary of paragraphs 792-798 and 807-810 of the Catechism as found in the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
