What does the Catechism say about...?

“250. How are the sacraments of the Church divided?”

The sacraments are divided into: the sacraments of Christian initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist); the sacraments of healing (Penance and Anointing of the Sick); and the sacraments at the service of communion and mission (Holy Orders and Matrimony). The sacraments touch all the important moments of Christian life. All of the sacraments are ordered to the Holy Eucharist ‘as to their end’ (Saint Thomas Aquinas).

251. How is Christian initiation brought about?

Christian initiation is accomplished by means of the sacraments which establish the foundations of Christian life. The faithful born anew by Baptism are strengthened by Confirmation and are then nourished by the Eucharist.

252. What names are given to the first sacrament of initiation?

This sacrament is primarily called Baptism because of the central rite with which it is celebrated. To baptize means to ‘immerse’ in water. The one who is baptized is immersed into the death of Christ and rises with him as a ‘new creature’ (2 Corinthians 5:17). This sacrament is also called the ‘bath of regeneration and renewal in the Holy Spirit’ (Titus 3:5); and it is called ‘enlightenment’ because the baptized becomes ‘a son of light’ (Ephesians 5:8).”

Summary of paragraphs 1210-1216 and 1275-1277 of the Catechism as found in the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
