What does the Catechism say about...?

“321. What are the sacraments at the service of communion and mission?”

Two sacraments, Holy Orders and Matrimony, confer a special grace for a particular mission in the Church to serve and build up the People of God. These sacraments contribute in a special way to ecclesial communion and to the salvation of others.

322. What is the sacrament of Holy Orders?

It is the sacrament through which the mission entrusted by Christ to his Apostles continues to be exercised in the Church until the end of time.

323. Why is this sacrament called Holy Orders?

Orders designates an ecclesial body into which one enters by means of a special consecration (ordination). Through a special gift of the Holy Spirit, this sacrament enables the ordained to exercise a sacred power in the name and with the authority of Christ for the service of the People of God.

324. What place does the sacrament of Holy Orders have in the divine plan of salvation?

This sacrament was prefigured in the Old Covenant in the service of the Levites, in the priesthood of Aaron, and in the institution of ‘the seventy elders’ (Numbers 11:25). These prefigurations find their fulfillment in Christ Jesus who by the sacrifice of the cross is the ‘one mediator between God and men’ (1 Timothy 2:5), the ‘High Priest according to the order of Melchizedek’ (Hebrews 5:10). The one priesthood of Christ is made present in the ministerial priesthood. ‘Only Christ is the true priest, the others being only his ministers’ (Saint Thomas Aquinas).”

Summary of paragraphs 1533-1546 and 1590-1591 of the Catechism as found in the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
