What does the Catechism say about...?

“209. What is meant by the term ‘heaven’?”

By ‘heaven’ is meant the state of supreme and definitive happiness. Those who die in the grace of God and have no need of further purification are gathered around Jesus and Mary, the angels and the saints. They thus form the Church of heaven, where they see God ‘face to face’ (1 Corinthians 13:12). They live in a communion of love with the Most Blessed Trinity and they intercede for us.

‘True and subsistent life consists in this: the Father, through the Son and in the Holy Spirit, pouring out his heavenly gifts on all things without exception. Thanks to his mercy, we too, men that we are, have received the inalienable promise of eternal life.’ (Saint Cyril of Jerusalem)

210. What is purgatory?

Purgatory is the state of those who die in God's friendship, assured of their eternal salvation, but who still have need of purification to enter into the happiness of heaven.

211. How can we help the souls being purified in purgatory?

Because of the communion of saints, the faithful who are still pilgrims on earth are able to help the souls in purgatory by offering prayers in suffrage for them, especially the Eucharistic sacrifice. They also help them by almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance.

212. In what does hell consist?

Hell consists in the eternal damnation of those who die in mortal sin through their own free choice. The principal suffering of hell is eternal separation from God in whom alone we can have the life and happiness for which we were created and for which we long. Christ proclaimed this reality with the words, ‘Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire’ (Matthew 25:41).

213. How can one reconcile the existence of hell with the infinite goodness of God?

God, while desiring ‘all to come to repentance’ (2 Peter 3:9), nevertheless has created the human person to be free and responsible; and he respects our decisions. Therefore, it is the human person who freely excludes himself from communion with God if at the moment of death he persists in mortal sin and refuses the merciful love of God.”

Summary of paragraphs 1023-1026, 1030-1037, 1053-1054, and 1056-1057 of the Catechism as found in the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
