What does the Catechism say about...?

“214. In what does the final judgment consist?”

The final or universal judgment consists in a sentence of happiness or eternal condemnation, which the Lord Jesus will issue in regard to the ‘just and the unjust’ (Acts 24:15) when he returns as the Judge of the living and the dead. After the last judgment, the resurrected body will share in the retribution which the soul received at the particular judgment.

215. When will this judgment occur?

This judgment will come at the end of the world and only God knows the day and the hour.

216. What is the hope of the new heavens and the new earth?

After the final judgment the universe itself, freed from its bondage to decay, will share in the glory of Christ with the beginning of ‘the new heavens’ and a ‘new earth’ (2 Peter 3:13). Thus, the fullness of the Kingdom of God will come about, that is to say, the definitive realization of the salvific plan of God to ‘unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth’ (Ephesians 1:10). God will then be ‘all in all’ (1 Corinthians 15:28) in eternal life.

217. What is the meaning of the word ‘Amen’ with which we conclude our profession of faith [The Creed]?

The Hebrew word ‘Amen,’ which also concludes the last book of the Sacred Scripture, some of the prayers of the New Testament, and the liturgical prayers of the Church, expresses our confident and total ‘yes’ to what we professed in the Creed, entrusting ourselves completely to him who is the definitive ‘Amen’ (Revelation 3:14; emphasis added), Christ the Lord.”

Summary of paragraphs 1038-1050, and 1058-1060 of the Catechism as found in the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
